

THE GOLDEN GATE

When Jesus arrived in Jerusalem, He probably travelled into the city through the 'Golden Gate', a huge double arched opening in the city wall that God's people had expected the Messiah to enter through for hundreds of years.

Can you build how you imagine the 'golden gate' of Jerusalem to have looked from some of your toys?

Do you have any other toys who could be Jesus riding in and maybe the people in the big crowd who watched and cheered?
